SERIAL No.	Letter in: 564 of the 9th June 1890 from the Inspector General of Police.

The order thereon by the Officiating Dewan
"Sanction the Charge etc"

In the above letter the Inspector General does not solicit sanction to the ex-penditure (Rs 10) incurred by Raju Mudaliar Amildar of Bowring Pett, on account of "Secret Service", because he does not submit the bill with his letter, but merely places before the Government the bill as if unpaid for their orders the Comptroller and we have no objection to pass the bill on his authority. The bill the authority of the Inspector General of Police, on the ground that the Comptroller has

9/8

had recommended to Govern-ment that the power of sanctioning the expenditure under this head should be reserved by the Government.
Mr. Ricketts in submitting the reference invites attention to the rules published at page 58 of the Mysore Police Circulars under which, the Deputy Commissioners and the Inspector General of Police have power of sanction up to certain limits under this head without reference to Government and these rules have been in force for many years past and in their working ^{of those rules} no practical inconvenience was ever experienced and any change in the rule ^{now} as recommended by the Comptroller will give rise to needless correspondence on petty matters and will, in consequence, hamper admi-nistration. Mr. Ricketts do that the amount hitherto

the above heads.

2. On another reference⁺ from the Inspector General of Police in connection with the charges to be incurred on the authority of the Inspector General of Police for the supply of chairs, ⁺ tables ⁺ tea to the districts, the Comptroller was requested to give his opinion.

3. The Comptroller stated in reply that the Deputy Commissioners as disbursing Officers, might be allowed to incur the ordi-nary expenditure in connect-ion with the Police under the heads as per margin, on their obtaining from the
Inspector General of Police
(the Controlling authority) at the beginning of each Office

1. Oil and Petty Stationery for Jamas.
2. Ordinary Contingencies of Police App^t Comm^{tee}.
3. Cart hire (while on circuit)
4. Repairs of Office furniture.

Official year, a general sanction of the scale of their expenditure and that the Inspector General, as Controlling Officer might be allowed to sanction the other articles, such as, hand ruffs, lanterns, whistles, stretchers and furniture, which are debitable to the Budget grant of Equipments and Clothing. In the Concluding para the Comptroller observes the Government might reserve to itself the right of sanctioning expenditure under the heads "Secret Service" and "Reward for good service" on the recommendation of the Inspector General of Police.

But the Inspector General of Police desires that he should possess this authority.

Orders are therefore required on letters,

Grant.

The Comptroller objects to this procedure, and wishes to be furnished with an order from the Local Government sanctioning expenditure of the above nature.

These I think are ordinary charges in the Police Department. If the Inspector General as Controlling

Sir,

I have the honor to forward for orders the Comptroller's Memo No. 574 dated the 3rd Instant, intimating that he has recommended that the expenditure under the heads "Secret Service" and "reward for good service" be reserved for Government sanction under the recommendation of the Inspector General of Police. I beg in this connection to bring to the notice of Government, the rules published at page 58 of the Mysore Police Circulars for 1874-1877. These rules authorize Deputy Commissioner to make advances and report the same to this office with a bill for countersignature.
